

What opinion polls tell us

Figures and graphs in this report

1.	Young Europeans much more likely to have personally benefited from freedom of movement	10
2.	Only three in ten Europeans think the EU is doing enough to combat climate change	12
3.	Nearly three-quarters of Europeans agree that the EU would not be worth having without freedom of movement	19
4.	Freedom to travel is the most chosen top personal benefit of EU membership	20
5.	Almost half of French respondents agree that the freedom of movement has had more costs than benefits for France	23
6.	Fewer young Europeans believe the EU requires a well-guarded external border than older Europeans	24
7.	Europeans want EU border guards to prevent unlawful entry and fight cross-border crime	25
8.	Migration aspirations by EU member state in 2017	29
9.	Most Europeans want carbon-neutral EU by 2030	36
10.	Europeans will drive or fly less, but reluctant to pay more tax to help combat climate change	39
11.	53% of young Europeans think authoritarian states are better equipped than democracies to tackle the climate crisis	40
12.	To help combat climate change, two in three Europeans would support a ban on short flights to destinations that could be reached within 12 hours by train	43
13.	76% of Europeans flew once a year or less within Europe (prior to the outbreak of Covid-19)	45
14.	Priorities of young Europeans (aged 15-30) in 2019	50
15.	84% of Europeans support a mandatory minimum wage	51
16.	71% of Europeans believe the state should give all citizens a basic income	53
17.	Young Europeans' ideas on how to spend a potential Eurozone budget	55
18.	Percentage of young Europeans (aged 15-24) who believe the EU symbolises democracy	68
19.	Two-thirds of Europeans believe the EU should do more to uphold democratic institutions	69
20.	Only one-fifth of Europeans know who gives the EU State of the Union address	70
21.	Most Europeans think that the presence of the European Parliament is of secondary importance to delivering effective action	71
22.	European citizens consistently in favour of a common EU foreign policy	83
23.	Percentage who believe the EU should play a more active role in global affairs	84